

If You Directly Purchased Airfreight Shipping Services Between January 1, 2000 and September 30, 2006, Your Rights may be Affected by Proposed Settlements

What are the Settlements about?

Plaintiffs claim that numerous air cargo carriers conspired to fix prices of Airfreight Shipping Services in violation of U.S. antitrust laws. As a result, Plaintiffs claim that purchasers paid more for Airfreight Shipping Services than they otherwise would have paid. Air China Ltd., Air China Cargo Company Ltd., Air India, Air New Zealand Ltd., Atlas Air Worldwide Holdings, Inc. (AAWH), Polar Air Cargo LLC, and Polar Air Cargo Worldwide, Inc. (the Settling Defendants) deny liability. However, they have settled with the Class to avoid the cost and risk of further litigation and/or a trial.

The Polar and AAWH settlement provides $100 million. The Air China settlement provides $50 million. The Air New Zealand settlement provides $35 million. The Air India settlement provides $12.5 million. These are in addition to prior settlements with other air cargo carriers of more than $1 billion.

These four settlement agreements and a complete list of Defendants are listed on the settlement website at www.aircargosettlement5.com.

Who is a class member?

You are a class member if you purchased airfreight shipping services directly from any of the Defendants to or from the United States from January 1, 2000 to September 30, 2006, and you did not opt out of the Litigation Class before January 22, 2016.

Will I get a payment?

If you are a class member, you are eligible to submit a claim and receive a payment from these settlements. And if you did not opt out of either the Litigation Class, or the settlements with Asiana Airlines, EVA Airways, or Nippon Cargo Airlines, then you are eligible to submit a claim and receive a payment from the settlements with these three Defendants as well. The amount of your payment will be determined by the plan of allocation, which is described in the full Notice. You may request a claim form online at

What are my rights?

Class members have the right to object to the settlements, the plan of allocation, the request for up to 25% of the settlement funds in attorneys' fees, and the reimbursement of expenses not to exceed $4 million, from the seven settlements discussed above. If you object, you must do so by September 15, 2016. You may speak to your own attorney at your own expense for help. You can find more information online at www.aircargosettlement5.com.
